Summer Reading Quest
at the Georgetown Public Library
Toddlers & Babies

June Quest Challenges

• Read a book about numbers
• Take a walk and identify colors
• Draw a picture or color
• Have a dance party
• Tell someone you love them
• Pretend to be an animal- what would you do all day?
• Think of words that rhyme
• Go outside and breathe in slowly five times
• Tell a loved one a story
• Build with blocks
• Talk about the days of the week. What does your family do each day?
• Sing the alphabet song
• Talk a walk and find some bugs. Describe the bugs you see.
• Count to 10 on your fingers. Count to ten on your toes.
• Read a book about a real person

The Georgetown Public Library is going virtual! Keep track of time spent reading or being read to and complete the challenges to earn chances to win prizes. The quest is to read at least 20 minutes a day and complete as many challenges as possible. You do not have to do all the challenges or complete them in any specific order.

Enter time read and challenges completed at:

bit.ly/gpl-srp2020

If you need help or are unable to enter your information, call us and we will assist. Last day to enter is July 31.