Novel, The Dutch House. Set in Philadelphia and spanning the 75 years of the 20th century, it's an emotionally riveting story about lonely and forgiving in the intertwined lives of two siblings and their parents.
I would have enjoyed the book had I read it in print, but I believe I enjoyed it significantly more by listening to the audiobook, which was read especially well by actor Tom Hanks.
Hanks also read the audio version of his own collection of short stories, Document Type, which is on my reading list for the fall.
