Richard A. Mick

Myrna Louise Jackson Newlan

Richard A. Mick

Myrna Louise Jackson Newlan

Richard A. Mick was born on January 13, 1932 in Houston, Texas and passed away on March 19, 2021 at the City of Georgetown, Texas. He was 89 years old.

Mick is survived by his six children and their families: Rick, Pam, Suzie, Missy, Randall and Ruel Russell Mick, sister, Barbara Gail Johnson Mick. He is preceded in death by his parents, Anita Kuntz and Robert H. Mick.

Mick’s life was dedicated to the library profession and public service. He was a devoted family man, and an accomplished musician, educator, sailor, and Scout

A: I've always been a reader, and my two favorite movies of late are "The Dig," and "The Sound of Metal." The former is a dramatization of the Sutton Hoo excavation, and the latter is a story of a deaf man who becomes a heavy metal devotee of low-fantasy or magical themes that make for good PBS adaptations.

Q&A with new library director Sally Micleu

Richard A. Mick

Myrna Louise Jackson Newlan

Richard A. Mick was born on January 13, 1932 in Houston, Texas and passed away on March 19, 2021 at the City of Georgetown, Texas. He was 89 years old.

Mick is survived by his six children and their families: Rick, Pam, Suzie, Missy, Randall and Ruel Russell Mick, sister, Barbara Gail Johnson Mick. He is preceded in death by his parents, Anita Kuntz and Robert H. Mick.

Mick’s life was dedicated to the library profession and public service. He was a devoted family man, and an accomplished musician, educator, sailor, and Scout

A: I've always been a reader, and my two favorite movies of late are "The Dig," and "The Sound of Metal." The former is a dramatization of the Sutton Hoo excavation, and the latter is a story of a deaf man who becomes a heavy metal devotee of low-fantasy or magical themes that make for good PBS adaptations.

Q&A with new library director Sally Micleu

Richard A. Mick was born on January 13, 1932 in Houston, Texas and passed away on March 19, 2021 at the City of Georgetown, Texas. He was 89 years old.

Mick is survived by his six children and their families: Rick, Pam, Suzie, Missy, Randall and Ruel Russell Mick, sister, Barbara Gail Johnson Mick. He is preceded in death by his parents, Anita Kuntz and Robert H. Mick.

Mick’s life was dedicated to the library profession and public service. He was a devoted family man, and an accomplished musician, educator, sailor, and Scout

A: I've always been a reader, and my two favorite movies of late are "The Dig," and "The Sound of Metal." The former is a dramatization of the Sutton Hoo excavation, and the latter is a story of a deaf man who becomes a heavy metal devotee of low-fantasy or magical themes that make for good PBS adaptations.

Q&A with new library director Sally Micleu

Richard A. Mick was born on January 13, 1932 in Houston, Texas and passed away on March 19, 2021 at the City of Georgetown, Texas. He was 89 years old.

Mick is survived by his six children and their families: Rick, Pam, Suzie, Missy, Randall and Ruel Russell Mick, sister, Barbara Gail Johnson Mick. He is preceded in death by his parents, Anita Kuntz and Robert H. Mick.

Mick’s life was dedicated to the library profession and public service. He was a devoted family man, and an accomplished musician, educator, sailor, and Scout

A: I've always been a reader, and my two favorite movies of late are "The Dig," and "The Sound of Metal." The former is a dramatization of the Sutton Hoo excavation, and the latter is a story of a deaf man who becomes a heavy metal devotee of low-fantasy or magical themes that make for good PBS adaptations.

Q&A with new library director Sally Micleu

Richard A. Mick was born on January 13, 1932 in Houston, Texas and passed away on March 19, 2021 at the City of Georgetown, Texas. He was 89 years old.

Mick is survived by his six children and their families: Rick, Pam, Suzie, Missy, Randall and Ruel Russell Mick, sister, Barbara Gail Johnson Mick. He is preceded in death by his parents, Anita Kuntz and Robert H. Mick.

Mick’s life was dedicated to the library profession and public service. He was a devoted family man, and an accomplished musician, educator, sailor, and Scout

A: I've always been a reader, and my two favorite movies of late are "The Dig," and "The Sound of Metal." The former is a dramatization of the Sutton Hoo excavation, and the latter is a story of a deaf man who becomes a heavy metal devotee of low-fantasy or magical themes that make for good PBS adaptations.

Q&A with new library director Sally Micleu

Richard A. Mick was born on January 13, 1932 in Houston, Texas and passed away on March 19, 2021 at the City of Georgetown, Texas. He was 89 years old.

Mick is survived by his six children and their families: Rick, Pam, Suzie, Missy, Randall and Ruel Russell Mick, sister, Barbara Gail Johnson Mick. He is preceded in death by his parents, Anita Kuntz and Robert H. Mick.

Mick’s life was dedicated to the library profession and public service. He was a devoted family man, and an accomplished musician, educator, sailor, and Scout

A: I've always been a reader, and my two favorite movies of late are "The Dig," and "The Sound of Metal." The former is a dramatization of the Sutton Hoo excavation, and the latter is a story of a deaf man who becomes a heavy metal devotee of low-fantasy or magical themes that make for good PBS adaptations.