A amazing artwork being prothe hard-working art teach-helped support our historic downtown buildings, including watercolors of  his-work in many departments among them a new athletic fundraising April 6), visit other library events, said. "Hammerlun Leader-fund library needs through al cohort will meet for 10 end inevitably started with a speak at Muster .  In equal part Coach R.C. Slocum trekked the train in Taylor with a deslence, according to the Jim McCombs, who called
"the latest Slack event.
way was so into art and he did his photography
He could hijack any event or didn't know what he He had two great-grandchil-edric was dedicated to the
"The academy is named
meets his departed friends were leg-
He could hijack any event or
You just never knew what
"To begin with, Jack was In equal part, Jack was in his and his friends in the Refugio for his age at the time, San Marcos, hunted and fished the and more. The project work at the train station in Taylor

The Georgetown Inde-notlaces of his heart, which will be on display painted will be sold for the Georgetown Mainning Award Program, which Commercial buildings in the Miss. Hammonds also her original watercolors
in expanding the
and sale, and "no one will be
you will also find a link to share within the library, you create student artists and the hearing from students.
for the late Jerry Ham-
will be held at a future date
"To begin with, Jack was
was his wit, his love, his generosi-want to leave a mark
and three nephews and many
Attorney Richard Ekvall and wife
"The Sunday Sun, April 4, 2021
The Georgetown Inde-
and six great-grandnephews.
the Georgetown ISD's
months ago, he was counting death in 2018, the Huckabee
"The Georgetown ISD

Jack was preceded in dedication to A&M inspired of his fondest memories of his work and his family. Some of this life on March 31, bed and a desk and a
"a leadership development
The academy is named
"Coach R.C. Slocum trekked to foster personal lead-was also active in the Refugio Rothe late Jerry Hammond, looked at and worked to support notices (including one by City Miss. Hammonds also
her original watercolors
in expanding the
and sale, and "no one will be
you will also find a link to share
within the library, you
create student artists and the
hearing from students.
for the late Jerry Ham-
will be held at a future date
"To begin with, Jack was
was his wit, his love, his generosi-
 want to leave a mark
and three nephews and many
Attorney Richard Ekvall and wife
"The Sunday Sun, April 4, 2021
The Georgetown Inde-
and six great-grandnephews.
the Georgetown ISD's
months ago, he was counting
death in 2018, the Huckabee
"The Georgetown ISD

Hubert Ture' Evkall

Hubert Ture' Evkall, 94, of Georgetown, who was the youngest of 10 children while growing up as a farm in the Georgetown area.
was born on June 27, 1926 in Armondo,
grandchild.

Hubert was the youngest of 3

He was born on June 27, 1926 in Armondo,
grandchild.

Hubert was the youngest of 3

He was born on June 27, 1926 in Armondo,
grandchild.

Hubert was the youngest of 3

He was born on June 27, 1926 in Armondo,
grandchild.

Hubert was the youngest of 3

He was born on June 27, 1926 in Armondo,
grandchild.

Hubert was the youngest of 3

He was born on June 27, 1926 in Armondo,
grandchild.

Hubert was the youngest of 3

He was born on June 27, 1926 in Armondo,
grandchild.

Hubert was the youngest of 3

He was born on June 27, 1926 in Armondo,