Patrick Lloyd, community resource coordinator, keeps working while telecommuting.

are, I hope you are weathering the Stay Home Stay Safe order in Williamson County. Whatever you are doing, I hope it is helping you stay at home.

Elizabeth Aukham, library assistant, puts reserved books out last week for curbside pickup.

The helpers are still working now. In reson to the COVID-19 challenge, we have more than 5,000 items available to our cardholders.

The Williamson County Sun, April 1, 2020

Robert Luster, library assistant, answers a patron question about using e-books.

Jamee Loid, library assistant, eats lunch at her desk to promote social distancing.