The Friends of the Georgetown Public Library are excited to announce the next Hill Country Author Series event at 6 p.m. February 5 at the Georgetown Public Library, 401 East Eighth Street. Mr. Longley is an award-winning historical, professor and author of right books that focus on U.S. foreign relations and modern American politics. He was named director of the Simpson Institute for Advanced Policy and International Studies at Stanford University in August 2017. At the event, Mr. Longley will feature his newest book, LBJ’s 1968 Peace Politic, and the Presidency in America’s Time of Upheaval. In this book, Longley explores how LBJ perceived the most significant events of 1968, including the Vietnam War, the assassinations of Martin Luther King, Jr., and Robert F. Kennedy, and the violent Demo- cratic National Convention in Chicago. As much a biography of a year as it is a上下文中的某句话。...
