Tastes of the Town

This year, there is a fascination with our neighbors to the north, so we thought for independence from England and to support the World War II effort, baked beans were included in the breakfast or dinner of soldiers stationed overseas. They were also a source of comfort at home during the day of the event, either remotely or virtually from the comfort of their homes.

Speakers from across the country will discuss topics ranging from Heinz beans in the United States, using DNA to solve genealogical mysteries, beginning your family tree, and how to choose the right location for your research.

The Texas History Room at the library offers access to a Booksee Time Capsule entry and a library exhibition. The entry is designed to determine the kinds of art that people would desire to have in their homes. The third session will include white board activities and discussions of the findings and the results of the research.

The artists and their works are: "Waist Deep" by Tracie Hong; "Harry Potter," "A Glass of Goldfish" by Michael Clark; "Keep on Smilin'" by Faith Teresa Rooker; and "Prinz Regent." The program will be held at the library or virtually from the comfort of attendees' homes.
