whether they'd like their donation to be used to give. More valuable books are also listed online or through the mail by check. Donors can specify the terms and conditions for their donation.

Donations of used books, audiovisual materials, or board games will be accepted and evaluated by the Friends to determine if they can be added to the local library. Donors can complete a Conditional Donation form at the first-floor circulation desk. For determining health and other benefits for county employees. It was a unique position that Fr...